Local McDonald's Announce 6th Annual Big Macs for the Battleship NORTH CAROLINA

WILMINGTON, NC – The Battleship NORTH CAROLINA is honored to announce the support in restoration fund efforts from local McDonald's. Big Macs for the Battleship will be launched on Memorial Day Weekend, May 24 – 27, 2019. $.50 from every Big Mac® sandwich sold at participating McDonald's restaurants will be donated to the restoration fund of the ship.

Denny Anderson, Owner/Operator of McDonald's, stated, "We are proud to help support the Battleship in its endeavors to maintain the historical integrity of the ship. By partnering with the NORTH CAROLINA, McDonald's is helping restore the State's Memorial that honors the Greatest Generation and all who have served." To date more than $26,000 has been raised through this yearly event.

Captain Terry Bragg, Executive Director for the Battleship, said, "The Battleship NORTH CAROLINA is humbled and thankful by McDonald's overwhelming support. They are true advocates of the Ship and her crew."

McDonald's is promoting Big Macs for the Battleship with in-store signs, inclusion in advertising and special Big Macs promotional coupons. Participating McDonald's locations include Burgaw, Carolina Beach, Elizabethtown, Fairmont, Hampstead, Leland, Lumberton, Pembroke, Rocky Point, Shallotte, Sneads Ferry, Southport, St. Pauls, Sunset Beach, Supply, Surf City, Whiteville and Wilmington, North Carolina.

About the Battleship NORTH CAROLINA
